

???????????????? is a leader, community volunteer and an honor student who has received recognition as a Clear Brook Science Fair Winner, President George Bush Award of Excellence, All District All Academic Basketball Team, Spirit Girl of the Week, Visual and Performing Arts Student of the month, Junior Homecoming Princess, 2009 Prom Court and American Dance/Drill Solo Division I Winner. She is also a member and choreographer for American Baptist State Convention of Texas Champion Praise Dance Team. She has played the part of an extra for the Disneyland Lion King Show and a slime taster on Nickelodeon. She was also selected to participate in a New York City Off-Broadway Production. She played the part of a boastful teenage in the play "Resurrection." ?????????? enjoys travel and has traveled in the United States, France and Italy. ?????????? has been dancing since she was three years old and has always enjoyed the stage. Her mother told her the story of how disappointed she was that she only got to dance for a few minutes at her three year old recital. ??????????'s future plans are to be a pediatrician, NASA engineer and/or replace Oprah. She is currently a member of the cast of "Left Behind" to run this summer at the Wortham Center in Houston, Texas.